KEYNOTE FACILITATOR

Isoke Titilayo Nia has more than 27 years of experience as an educator.

The first nine of those years were spent in independent schools for children of African descent. During that tenure, she taught grades 3 through 11.

For 13 years, Nia directed research and development at The Reading/Writing Project, Teachers College, Columbia University. In September 2001, she founded All Write Literacy Consultants, and she now travels throughout the United States and abroad learning and sharing that learning with others who teach.

A writer of short stories, Nia is close to completing a book tentatively titled “Digging Deep: The Study of Genre in the Process Classroom.”
